

Training Course Agenda for CS3000 Operation

Course Code	:	CS3OP
Objectives	:	This course is designed to give participants the fundamental knowledge on the operation and functions of the CS3000 system. It also provides an introduction to system configuration.
Course Duration	:	2 days
Training Hours	:	morning session 9 ⁰⁰ to 12 ⁰⁰ afternoon session 13 ⁰⁰ to 16 ⁰⁰
Trainees	:	8 maximum
Participants	:	For CS3000 operators, plant operation specialists and engineers who need to operate the CS3000 system.
Prerequisite	:	Participants should preferably have some basic knowledge on process measurement and control.
Documentation	:	CS3000 Training Manual
Location	:	Please refer to the supplied Orientation sheet for venue details
Additional Information	:	Please advise on the number of vehicles so that parking requirements can be organised. Lunch will be provided.
Contact Information	:	National Training Centre Yokogawa Australia Pty Ltd Tower A Level 2 112 – 118 Talavera Rd, MACQUARIE PARK NSW 2113 AUSTRALIA telephone : +61 2 8870 1100 facsimile : +61 2 8870 1111 e-mail : training@au.yokogawa.com Training site : http://www.yokogawa.com/au/cp/trainingcentre.htm Website : http://www.yokogawa.com/au/

Course Content

Day	Morning Session	Afternoon Session
1	CS3000 system configuration Description of hardware Display Navigation	Operation of windows, trends and faceplates
2	System maintenance, report and utility functions	System configuration - modifying I/O - modifying control loops and logic - modifying graphics

HIS - Information & Command Station