CSPC Nanhai Petrochemical Complex

“Yokogawa has been very responsible and proactive in handling the project, despite many challenges. (One) example (of innovation) is Yokogawa’s DCS Anywhere technology, developed at CSPC’s request to allow engineers across the site to access the control room via the plant-wide network. It’s one of the most advanced plant information network in the world to date.” “Yokogawa has been receptive: they have listened to our requirements and have been willing to make changes whenever we encountered difficulties. They have delivered what we wanted, on schedule and within budget.”
