

Yokogawa United Kingdom Job Vacancy

Title : Engineering Supervisor

Location : Runcorn

Reporting into : Projects Director

Package: Negotiable

A summary of the core responsibilities and tasks of the role :-

- Overall management of the project Engineering function to meet operational, technical and business needs.
- Line management, training, motivation and skill assessment of Project Engineers.
- Engineering resource planning, provision, management and deployment to meet business objectives
- Quality of project engineering output
- Identifying the needs and requirements of customers and assist in providing solutions
- Assist the Sales Support team with the production of proposals.

Other Experience / Qualifications

Experience

- Teamwork, and the building and managing of project engineering teams
- Previous supervisory or management experience
- Minimum of 10 years experience in the automation industry
- Proven track record in project engineering
- Engineering management of major application packages

Qualifications

- Must possess a recognised formal qualification in an engineering or process related subject
- Should be trained in project management, Six Sigma techniques, mentoring etc

If you would like to apply for this position, please send your CV by either email or post.

Email : lynn.kelly@uk.yokogawa.com

Closing Date : Friday 4th January 2008, 5.00pm