Yokogawa Announces 4th Annual Users Group Conference DON'T GAMBLE WITH RELIABILITY!

Newnan, Georgia – Yokogawa Corporation of America announces its 4th annual Users Group Conference to be held June 22nd – 25th at The RIO in Las Vegas, Nevada. At the conference, you'll hear examples of how Yokogawa's Solutions have helped their customers increase the level of performance and reliability in their plants. You will have the opportunity to meet plant managers, project engineers, product specialists, integrators, representatives, and other users who will help resolve your automation challenges.

The Conference will begin with a welcome reception on Sunday evening, and continue with Product Roadmaps, Users Forum and a Solutions Showcase. Yokogawa management team will be highlighting the present and future business and performance topics.

Yokogawa is committed to being a technology oriented solutions provider by continuing to develop new instrumentation and control systems for our core interest – Our Customers! Yokogawa has pledged to focus our vision on industrial automation, test and measurement, information technology, service and training.

You may want to come to Vegas to gamble ... but with Yokogawa you don't have to gamble with your reliability.
