Yokogawa Names Gaas VP Sales for Global Major Accounts

Sugar Land, TX -- Yokogawa Corporation of America announced today that Richard Gaas will join its executive management team as Vice President of Sales for Global major accounts effective December 4, 2007.

"Richard is a strong leader with a proven track record," said David Johnson, President and CEO. "He brings a wealth of knowledge and experience to this position having served in executive sales management at Invensys Process Systems, Invensys Triconex and Honeywell. As Yokogawa positions itself as the market leader in North America, we needed someone with his unique global perspective to ensure our continued success. We anticipate rapid expansion under his leadership."

Gaas will be stationed at Yokogawa's Sugar Land, Texas, industrial automation headquarters and will be responsible for all aspects of selling and marketing of Yokogawa's world-class industrial automation solutions to major accounts. his primary responsibility will focus in sales and marketing for major accounts in North America and its full integration with our domestic sales channels.

Naoji Nagami, who formerly ran the GMA group, will continue his role as Vice-President of Industrial Automation Global Solutions.
